

ST. BEDE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, LOS ANGELES, CA

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

July 11, 2010

Welcome to St. Bede's Church. We're pleased that you have chosen to worship here today. If you are visiting, please sign the guest book or fill out the card in the Visitor's packet, and join the congregation downstairs in the parish hall for refreshments after the service. If you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of the Episcopal Church, simply relax with the liturgy and let the rest of the congregation carry you in worship. The rest rooms, nursery and classrooms are located downstairs off the parish hall.

Our reading from the Gospel of Luke today is the Parable of the Good Samaritan. We are therefore confronted in the liturgy with the radical call of God to love our neighbor as ourselves. Our participation in the Eucharist as the baptized people of God is far more than an action by which we receive God's grace for ourselves; it is our act of commitment to the ministry of self-giving love to others. The Prayers of the People in particular express this. By joining in prayer, we commit ourselves to active ministry to those for whom we pray.

Today we begin reading through the Epistle to the Colossians, hearing Paul's opening greeting to the church in Colossae. It is the love which the people of that church share with each other which is the mark of their life in the Spirit: a sign of that obedience implanted in us by God.

We are given this ministry of active love toward others as the means of extending the saving and reconciling work of Christ to all humankind. Our celebration today, and at every gathering of the church, is meant to send us out into the world to make Christ known.
