

ST. BEDE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, LOS ANGELES, CA

THE FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

November 29, 2009

Welcome to St. Bede's Church. We're pleased that you have chosen to worship here today. If you are visiting, please sign the guest book or fill out the card in the Visitor's packet, and join the congregation downstairs in the parish hall for refreshments after the service. If you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of the Episcopal Church, simply relax with the liturgy and let the rest of the congregation carry you in worship. The rest rooms, nursery and classrooms are located downstairs off the parish hall.

On the first Sunday of Advent, the liturgy is concerned with our preparation for the return of Christ at the end of time. The Gospel reading today is a portion of Jesus' words concerning that time. We are called to see the events of history as signs of the approaching end and to recognize that end as the coming of our redemption.

The Old Testament reading today, from the prophet Jeremiah, is a sixth-century B.C. vision of the Day of the Lord: God will come as a branch of the House of David. This passage was one of several that influenced the early Christian writers' understanding of Jesus' lineage.

The second reading is from Paul's first Thessalonian letter. His letters to the church in Thessalonica were prompted by difficulties in that congregation, due to their misunderstanding of the Lord's promise to return. In today's reading, Paul encourages the Thessalonians to see their ministry and mutual love as the way to prepare for the Lord's return.

There is an "already, but not yet" aspect to the New Testament's discussion of the Lord's return. God's kingdom is not limited to a time in the far-off future; it began breaking into human history in Jesus' death and resurrection. The Lord comes to judge and to save in each moment in the life of his people. Above all, he is revealed in our encounter with him in the eucharistic meal.
